4. Matters arising from the minutes

Arriva- The Council noted that they were unhappy with the consultation process. Cllr. Megan Tomos has written to Cllrs. Dafydd Meurig and Paul Rowlinson, and also written to Sian Gwenllian and Hywel Williams AM. Cllr. Megan Tomos noted her disappointment that she has not received any response.

Pavement between Tan y Lôn and 'Gypsy Corner' – Cllrs. Geraint Hughes and Alun Thomas have met with Gwynedd Council on site, where it was agreed that the condition of the pavement is unacceptable. Gwynedd Council agreed to clear the pavement within the next few weeks. The councillors are disappointed that the work has still not begun. The Clerk to contact Gwynedd Council.

Eglwys Llan- the public footpath next to the church has eroded. Gwynedd Council have replied stating that they will be co-operating with Natural Resource Wales on the matter, and their anticipating that the path will be maintained during the summer.

Anti-Flood System – Freedom of Information Act application made for all costs involved. A response was received that £1,063,000 was the total amount spend up to now, however the work has not yet been completed. It was agreed that accurate figures under different budgets was to be requested.

Lamb Sale – Invoice amount still outstanding, it was agreed that a reminder notice will be sent via recorded postal delivery.

Tal y Bont Playing Field – a request to be made to Partneriaeth Ogwen to raise ideas on how to utilise and promote the use of the playing field. A response was received by the Project Manager asking whether there are any scheduled community events where there could be an opportunity to consult with the residents of Tal y Bont. It was agreed to try and hold a public meeting towards the end of May, where ideas can be raised with the local residents.

Carneddau Landscape Partnership – it was reported that Lois Mai Jones is keen to meet with the sheperd to discuss the project.

Potholes – it was reported that another pothole has appeared on Lôn Ddŵr, and that the road near Bronydd still requires cleaning.
